

My Redeemer

Steve Green

You begin with shattered souls
Those hiding in their shame
And fashion from their brokenness
A story filled with grace
A story filled with grace

Redeemer, You take all that's lost
And turn it into gain
So why am I amazed to find
You reached this broken life of mine
You make all things new
That's what you do

My Redeemer
To all who feel so far away
Afraid to see your face
You silence every trembling word
With your strong embrace
With you strong embrace

Redeemer, You take all that's lost
And turn it into gain
So why am I amazed to find
You reached this broken life of mine
You make all things new
That's what you do

Lord, you are so merciful
More than we could dream
Your glory shines
In all that you redeem

Redeemer, You take all that's lost
And turn it into gain
So why am I amazed to find
You reached this broken life of mine
You make all things new
That's what you do
