Dearest mama, everything will be all right now I will be safe It's only that the outside which i have not seen For so many long years During my divine exile Makes me a little nervous , mama But i think the time has come for your Unnamed warrior-child To make his presence obvious Don't you agree, mama ? Mama, are you listening to me, mama ? Are you there, mama ? Mama, come back, come back, come back (mama: but i have things to do, dear) Mama, i am blinded I feel nothing save death It all seems to come up from behind me and hit me like An avalanche I feel nothing save evil Repossess me, mama, repossess me, mama Help me to escape from this lunatic inheritance Repossess me, mama, REPOSSESS (mama: ha-ha-hee-hee-ha)
