

Rock-A-Bye Heart

Steve Holy

This world is full of high's and low's
Wide open smiles and tears that flow
And you're bound to have your share of both
That's guaranteed
Sometimes you'll fly, sometimes you'll fall
Sometimes you'll dance around it all
But on your knees or standin' tall
You can always count on me

So close your tired eyes, precious angel of mine
And let my love surround you in the dark
As sure as the sun that rises
You'll have all you desire
So rest your wishes in the cradle of my arms
And lay your dreams down in my Rock-A-Bye Heart

You're the answer to a lifelong prayer
There's heaven in your eyes, I swear
One look and you can take me there
That's all I need
Your laugh is music to my ears
You cry and I can taste the tears
And I'll forever be right here
To watch you as you dream

So close your tired eyes, precious angel of mine
And let my love surround you in the dark
As sure as the sun that rises
You'll have all you desire
So rest your wishes in the cradle of my arms
And lay your dreams down in my Rock-A-Bye Heart

Sure as the sun that rises
You'll have all you desire
So rest your wishes in the cradle of my arms
And lay your dreams down in my Rock-A-Bye Heart
