

Poor Little Rich Girl

Steve Lawrence

Poor little rich girl
I know why you're blue
You finally found something, that your daddy wont buy for you
Whoa, poor little rich girl
How happy you could be
If you hadn't fallen in love with a poor boy like me

If I were a rich boy, I could make you mine
But tonight when I kiss you, it will be for the very last time
Whoa, poor little rich girl
It's sad but it's true,
In the eyes of the world I'm not good enough for you

It would have been better, if we had never met
Ahhh you'd be without a care in the world, with nothing to forget
Ahhhh poor little rich girl... how happy you could be
If you hadn't fallen in love with a poor boy like me

Ahhhhh poor little rich girl
How happy you could be,
If you hadn't fallen in love with a poor boy like me
