

Fall Into Velvet

Steve Lukather

I was born as me alone
Isolation far from home
I was nurtured in the light
Mother's milk pure and white
I was told of a secret
To close my eyes
Fall into velvet

What I fear
This childhood dream
Must be real
I can feel it
Now I understand
This comfort of man
Take my hand
Fall into velvet

(Cindy)
You can touch where you've never been touched
See further than you've ever seen

Fall into velvet

I was touched by those who know
Of this power to fly alone
As the path will twist and wind
Leave for others, as we find
So the future may collect
Close their eyes
Fall into velvet

What I fear
This childhood dream
Must be real
I can feel it
Now I understand
This comfort of man
Take my hand
Fall into velvet

(Cindy)
You can touch where you've never been touched
See further than you've ever seen

Fall into velvet

Life supplies the mind's survival
