

Fighter

Steve Martin

What's it gonna be when the enemy
When he tries to get in your head
It's a long, lonely night
When you tell him no, and you tell him go
And he shows you pictures instead
It's a long, lonely fight

Hey, hey, fighter
You can stay with me
Hey, hey, fighter
You can stay
Wooh, yeah, you can stay with me
Wooh, yeah, you can stay
When you let her in, thought she was a friend
And you find she's no friend at all
It's a hard, lonely time
And you let her see every little thing
In your heart, a clear crystal ball
It's a hard, lonely fight

Hey, hey, fighter
You can stay with me
Hey, hey, fighter
You can stay
Wooh, yeah, you can stay
Wooh, yeah, you can stay with me

Got no one to keep you warm
You feel the fire is dyin'
You can lie here by my side

Hey, hey, fighter
You can stay with me
Hey, hey, fighter
Won't you stay with me
Wooh, yeah, you can stay with me
Wooh, yeah, you can stay
