

Go Away, Stop, Turn Around, Come Back

Steve Martin

I don't wanna lose you,
I know you think I do.
I know I must confuse you,
I swear I don't mean to.
When I say I love you,
You know just what I mean.
My thoughts not quite in heaven,
Somewhere in between.

Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.
Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.

I don't want to offend you,
Wrong to be that way.
Don't know where to send you,
Here or far away.
Let's just say it's over,
Time to move along.
Wait it's Tuesday evening,
Our favorite show is on.

Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.
Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.

Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.
Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.

When I say I love you,
You know just what I mean.
My thoughts not quite in heaven,
Somewhere in between.
I don't wanna lose you,
I know you think I do.
I know I must confuse you,
I swear I don't mean to.

Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.
Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.

Go away, stop, turn around, come back.
Go away, stop, come back.

Go away, stop, come back.
