

Who You Gonna Take?

Steve Martin

Who you gonna take to the dance
Who you gonna take if you don't take me
Who you gonna take to the dance
Who you gonna take
Who you gonna get to hold hands
Who you gonna get if you don't get me
Who you gonna get to hold hands
Who you gonna get

Who you gonna take to the show
Who you gonna take to the picture show
Who you gonna take to the show
Who you gonna take
Who you gonna get in the back row
Who you gonna get if you don't get me
Who you gonna get in the back row
Who you gonna get

When are you going to wake up
And open your eyes
When are you going to wake up
And realize I'm the one

Who you gonna take to the fair
Who you gonna take if you don't take me
Who you gonna take everywhere
Who you gonna take
Who you gonna take to the dance
Big mistake if you don't take me
Who you gonna take to the dance
Who you gonna take

Now I know you got your eye on so many
And they all take a shine to you too
But why pick up every shiny penny
When there's a heart of gold right here for you

I'm the one
I'm the one

When are you going to wake up
And open your eyes
When are you going to wake up
And see the light
