I ain't complainin'
But I'd sure like to find me
A true, fine love
Someone another
That's as sweet as your mother
A true, fine love

Cause the time is right
For walking in the moonlight
I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down
So come on get your rocks off
I'm gonna knock your socks off

You'll see, oh yeah So come on pretty baby We're going to raise a family

There'll be no hesitatin'
Cause I'm so tired of waitin'
For a true, fine love
Someone another
Like a sister or brother
A true, fine love

Cause the time is right

For walking in the moonlight

I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down

So come on get your rocks off

I'm gonna knock your socks off

You'll see, oh yeah So come on pretty baby We gonna raise a family

Well I ain't complainin'
But I'd sure like to find me
A true, fine love
Someone another
That's as sweet as your mother
A true, fine love

Cause the time is right

For walking in the moonlight

I have suddenly found I'm ready to settle down

We'll have a boy for you, we'll have a girl for me

Come on baby raise a family

So come on get your socks off I'm gonna knock your rocks off
