You're So Fine

Steve Miller Band

Saw a girl walkin' down the street Upsettin' everybody she meet Well, she walks up to the corner She stops, everybody they want her

She's fine Yes, yes, yes, she's fine She's a fine, pretty thing I wanna love her all the time

Well, I said tell me baby Honey, where you goin' She said darlin' Well, I wouldn't be knowin' She had on a long evening frock She stopped in the street and did the rock

She's fine Yeah, she's fine She's a fine, pretty thing I wanna love that woman all the time

Well, I said tell me baby What you thinkin' of She said there isn't anything greater than love She looked at me And she gave me a smile Shook her head and winked her eye

But she's fine Yes, yes, she's fine She's a fine, pretty thing I need to love that woman all the time
