Steve Moakler

I wake up when I want to
And blow my kisses at you
Well I don't need nothin more
Than sunlight and an open door

Sometimes I trouble my mind
And I waste my time
Cuz all I have between the coffin and the cradle

Is to be free
Yes, I'm free
Let me hold my tiny dancer
Free, yes, I'm free
Well, I already found the answer
Free is every breath, every step I take
Free is when you know that your soul's awake
Free, free, free

These days a new invention
That's why I stop and listen
I wont let it pass me by
Lace my shoes and look alive

So don't trouble your mind
You'll only waste your time
All you have between the coffin and the cradle

Is to be free
Yes, I'm free
Let me hold my tiny dancer
Free, yes, I'm free
Well, I already found the answer
Free is every breath, every step I take
Free is when you know that your soul's awake
Free, free, free

Get on up, get on up
You've got to get yourself up, get on up now, now

Free, let me hold my tiny dancer
Free, yes, I'm free
Well, I already found the answer
Free is every breath, every step I take
Free is when you know that your soul's awake
Free, free, free
