

Stay Sound

Steve Moakler

We could dance all night out on the back porch if you let me get my radio.

Call all your friends and tell them you met a prince --
he says someday he might like to treat you like a queen.

I've been in love before -- it never felt like this so I'll take it back like those things I said before I didn't mean it and you know what I mean you've grown as cold as a stone
but you move me with your motion like a stream yeah....

I'll ride your waves 'til it crashes -- I will.
I'll burn your fire til it's ashes and ashes are
all I can ask of you
is that you not forget about me.

You be the gun, I'll be the trigger finger;
we'll start a war and back and forth, bullets pour Yeah well..
Someone told me that your love was invincible.
-- sounded crazy -- now I live by the principle.
You know I believe it, 'cause you made me believe it.

And I'll ride your wave til it crashes; I will.
I'll burn your fire til it's ashes and ashes are
all I can ask of you
is that you not forget about me.

Please pardon my invasion
think I'd like a conversation to let you know I've fallen for you, love.
I have no hesitations 'cause I have a reservation to take you by the hands tonight.
Please pinch me if I'm dreaming; I'm staring at the ceiling wondering if I'm alive.

And I'll ride your wave til it crashes; I will.
I'll burn your fire til it's ashes and ashes are
all I can ask of you
is that you not forget about me.

And I'll ride your wave til it crashes; I will.
I'll burn your fire til it's ashes and ashes are
all I can ask of you
is that you stay sound in your sleep, love.

Yeah let this sweet song guide you into the surest shorelines
and I will away you Please just take your time.
