

Summer Of Luv

Steve Perry

I know the reason
Why love has a season
It's summer time

I was walking downtown and saw her, yeah
The prettiest thing, yes I saw her, oh
So I said you know, I'd love to talk to you a while
Oh, yeah, yeah, she's so lovely, so lovely
I think she loves me
So I told her I think I love you
Do you believe I do, do you now
Do you

And maybe you know you could come around
After the show and we could go out
And have a cup of coffee or something
Huh, huh, you think
Oh, but yeah, yeah, she's lovely, so lovely
Oh, she loves me

I know the reason love has a season
It's summer time

Could I be dreaming, 'cause seeing is believing
It's you and I and our summer of love
Oh, ooh yeah, yeah, she's so lovely, so lovely

I know the reason love has a season
It's summer time

Could this be dreaming, 'cause seeing is believing
It's you and I and our summer of love
Oh, please get me to the church on time
