Written Guarantee

Steve Taylor

Nothing happens when you're counting the cost You fill the basket when the bread gets tossed Castaway upon the waterfront Step right in and take whatever you want

It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me

Full of feelings that I couldn't afford Till I up and threw my heart overboard Take it all 'cause I remember when I lost my life so you could find it again

It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me Who is gonna disagree When I give it up to you You give it back to me

Nothing happens when I'm counting the cost You fill the basket when the bread gets tossed

It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me

It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me Who is gonna disagree When I give it up to you You give it back to me

It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me It's a written guarantee When I give it up to you You give it back to me