

Lynda

Steve Wariner

I woke up screaming this morning
I sat bolt upright in bed
I saw the red sky dawning
Must have been something I read

Lynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in love

I don't see no ship going under
Don't hear no pouring rain
Don't hear no lightning and thunder
I just hear the sound of your name

Lynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in love

Keep the machinery running
If it ever gets out of hand
You can be my wonder woman
And I'll just be your spider man

Lynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in love

Lynda do you want to dance
Lynda give me half a chance
Lynda just a passing glance
And we'll fall in love
