I live for the phone I die for the mail I took your picture Right off the nail. And put it right by my bed So I could see you instead Of the darkness of night. I hold conversations With you in my mind They only tighten This knot deep inside And the aching won't end Till I hold you again If I only survive. Why did you have to go Why am I missing you so One heartbeat at a time I'm going out of my mind Missing you, missing you. I started a letter I stared at your name There wasn't a line That didn't echo my pain There was no sound at all But the snow lonely falls Of an unspoken tear. Why did you have to go Why am I missing you so One heartbeat at a time I'm going out of my mind Missing you, missing you. Life may take us In different directions But I always end up deeper Deeper in my true affection. Why did you have to go Why am I missing you so One heartbeat at a time I'm going out of my mind Missing you, missing you. Missing you, missing you Missing you, missing you Missing you, missing you Missing you, darling. Missing you baby. Missing you, missing you...
