What I Didn't Do

Steve Wariner

I didn't cheat, I didn't lie, So her leaving took me by surprise. Just a note on the table, Saying we're through. At first I went crazy, So it took me sometime. But I finally read between the lines. It's not what I did, It's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her, Each day I loved her. I took it for granted, Somehow she knew. I didn't hold her, When she needed a shoulder. It's not what I did, It's what I didn't do.

Now it's easy to see, Why her love died. She was planning her nights, By the T.V. Guide. She needed me with her, More than I knew. I was too busy working, Getting ahead. When I should of been home, Loving her instead. It's not what I did, It's what I didn't do.

I didn't tell her, Each day I loved her. I took it for granted, Somehow she knew. I didn't hold her, When she needed a shoulder. It's not what I did, It's what I didn't do. Oh, It's not what I did, It's what I didn't do.
