Dust

Steve Winwood

Time they call the universal healer But you're back every three days, settling all around me A feather duster's no substitute for the real thing And the dust you left behind is settling still

With you dawn never tasted so good Swept up like debris on a Saturday night, did we ever have fun? The dust, the gentle legacy You left behind Is falling softly on my mind

Dust, the timeless memory of you I love you, I do for all the little things you do And I guess I always will The dust settles again to remind me still Of a memories I've cherished so long

Hold me close to your side 'Cause my love won't decay anymore Memories of hope of those long summer days And the dust you left behind is settling still

With you dawn never tasted so good Swept up like debris on a Saturday night, did we ever have fun? And the dust, the gentle legacy, You left behind Is falling softly on my mind

Dust, the timeless memory of you I love you, I do for all the little things you do And I guess I always will The dust settles again to remind me still Of a memories I've cherished so long

Feeling your body stretched so long What was it, went so wrong? That our love, our love it was gone, oh it was gone But our friendship going strong, gone strong, so much strong, o h Going strong, going strong, oh

Feeling your body stretched so long, stretched so long What was it, went so wrong, went wrong That our love, that our love it was gone, gone, gone, gone But our friendship going strong, gone strong Going strong, going strong, going strong
