

Jesus Will Meet You There

Steven Curtis Chapman

When you think you've hit the bottom and the bottom gives way and you fall into a darkness no words can explain and you don't know how you make it out alive
Jesus will meet you there.

When the doctor says, "I'm sorry, we don't know what else to do."
and you're looking at your family wondering how they'll make it through...
Whatever road this life takes you down,
Jesus will meet you there.

He knows the way to wherever you are
He knows the way to the depths of your heart
He knows the way cuz he's already been where you're going
Jesus will meet you there.

When the jury says, "Guilty," and the prison doors close When the one you love says nothing, just packs up and goes
When the sunlight comes and your world's still dark,
Jesus will meet you there.

When you've failed again and all your second chances have been used And the heavy weight of guilt and shame is crushing down on you...
And all you have is one last cry for help
Jesus will meet you there.

He knows the way to wherever you are
He knows the way to the depths of your heart
He knows the way cuz he's already been
where you're going

When you realize the dreams you've had for your child won't come true when the phone rings in the middle of the night with tragic news...
Whatever valley you must walk through,
Jesus will meet you there.

He will meet you there.

Jesus will meet you there...
