Last Day On Earth

Steven Curtis Chapman

I pull over to the side of the road

And I watch the cars pass me by

The headlights and the black limousines tell me

Someone is saying goodbye

I bow my head and I whisper a prayer,
"Father, comfort their broken hearts"
And as I drive away there's a thought that I
I cannot escape, no I, cannot escape this thought
I can't get away

Oh, if this should be my last day on this earth How then shall I live?
Oh, if this should be the last day that I have

Before I breathe the air of Heaven Let me live it with abandon to The only thing that remains After my last day here on earth

If this should be my last day here on earth
If this should be my last day here on earth
If this should be my last, last day here on earth

And if tomorrow comes to find me Looking in the face of Jesus Will I hear Him say the words "well done"?

If this should be my last day here on earth
If this should be my last, my last day here on earth
Cause if this could be my last, this could be my last
This could be my last day
