

Only One and Only You

Steven Curtis Chapman

I caught you looking in the window at your reflection and I could see you were unimpressed
I watch you whither like a willow at what you think are imperfections
When you compare you to all the rest
And I wish I could find a way to make you see you the way I do
So I wrote this song for you

You're better than a Beethoven symphony
And Mona Lisa wishes she could be a masterpiece like you
More than any Michelangelo
When I look at you I know
There's no other masterpiece like you
You are the only one and only you

There is music in your laughter the world has never heard before
You came and brought a melody
The way you say it the way you see it
When you're sad and glad and so much more
All these gifts only you can bring Still I know that right now everything that you feel says it's just not true
So I'll keep reminding you that

You're better than a Beethoven symphony
And Mona Lisa wishes she could be a masterpiece like you
More than any Michelangelo
When I look at you I know there's no other masterpiece like you
You are the only one and only you

Wonderfully, carefully woven together by God's own hand
And you're better than a Beethoven symphony
And Mona Lisa wishes she could be a masterpiece like you
More than any Michelangelo
When I look at you I know there's no other masterpiece like you
You are the only one and only you
You are the only one and only you
