

Tell Me

Steven Curtis Chapman

Whatever happened to Johnny?
He was in church every time
The doors were opened
He gave his time and his money
Why did he give up the fight?
He was a spiritual her

Whatever happened to Sharon?
She was the only one
You knew, you could always turn to
How could she be so uncaring?
She turned her back on you
Who you going to turn to now?

Tell me, tell me who are you depending on?
Tell me who do you believe?
You lost your faith in so many people
But is your faith in who it should be? Yeah

There's only one who keeps all of His promises
He is the only solid ground
Let Jesus be the one you are trusting
To lift you up, 'cause He'll never let you down

Whatever happens, He's faithful
Those who depend on him
Will never be disappointed
So trust His word and be thankful
You found the one who's true
Someone you can turn to now, turn to now

Tell me, tell me who are you depending on?
Tell me who do you believe?
You lost your faith in so many people
But is your faith in who it should be? Yeah

There's only one who keeps all of His promises
He is the only solid ground
Let Jesus be the one you are trusting
To lift you up, 'cause He'll never let you down

Then he'll lift you up
He'll never let you down
Tell me

Tell me, tell me who are you depending on?
Tell me who do you believe?
You lost your faith in so many people
But is your faith in who it should be? Yeah

There's only one who keeps all of His promises
He is the only solid ground
Let Jesus be the one you are trusting
To lift you up, 'cause He'll never let you down

Tell me, tell me who are you depending on?
Tell me who do you believe?

You lost your faith in so many people
But is your faith in who it should be? Yeah

There's only one who keeps all of His promises
He is the only solid ground
Let Jesus be the one you are trusting
To lift you up, 'cause He'll never let you down

Tell me, tell me
