

Blank Tapes

Steven Wilson

All that I know is
You'll be gone before I get home
Heartbreaker butterfly
On a wheel before I let go

Nothing left for us
Nothing is left but the blank tapes
Nothing left for us
Nothing is left but the blank tapes
In your car

Once I could hold you
And the world reflected back at me
We lost perspective
On the things that are in love that seems

Nothing left for us
Nothing is left but the blank tapes
Nothing left for us
Nothing is left but the blank tapes
In your car
