

Listen To Your Man

Stevie Hoang

Tell me why we gotta go through this again
Well I guess that you've been talking to your friends
Cause you're accusing me of things that I havent done
What I was doing at the club was just having fun
U said she saw me leave the spot with another one
Now why would I do that

Now she must have mistaken the time that she saw me leave
Cause I was rolling with my boys so the dude she saw wasn't me
You will believe what u want but it's plain to see
That your friends just want to come between you and me
Don't believe in what they say cause it's jealousy
Girl can't u see that

[Chorus:]

Girl u should know by now I'm not that type of guy
Cause I changed my ways when I found you
Just put your trust in me don't let them tear us apart
Girl u should know and understand
Listen to your man

Now we done made it this far your friend said we wouldn't last
I used to roll with a black book but that was all in my past
Now I've given up the game just to be with u
Even my homies can't believe it but girl it's true
Cause I finally found someone I can call my boo
Girl u should know that

Tell my why your heart is filled with so much doubt
Can't believe that everytime I'm gone u think id be playing u out
Don't be believeing all the things taht people say your the only girl
I kick it with everyday
Tell me why the hell would I throw it all away
Why would I do that

Please believe me when I say no one else can take your place
Can't let the haters try and tear us apart
Girl your the only one that holds my heart

[Chorus: x2]

Girl u should know by now I'm not that type of guy
Cause I changed my ways when I found you
Just put your trust in me don't let them tear us apart
Girl u should know and understand
Listen to your man

I think I might be missing some things but it's all I can do
