

No Good

Stevie Hoang

Hey hey every girl in the ghetto
Gotta feel mem gotta feel this
All my fellas in the ghetto
I know you feel me, I know you feel this

Every day I get my love from you and I never let it show
You were always there right in my heart but I never let you know
Never thought we wouldn't make up this would be our final break up
If I knew then what I know now wouldn't never let you go

Cause I, baby I, e, I
Never saw this coming
Shoulda took the time
To figure out what you needed
Now I realise that you all I'm living for
And baby how much I need ya

I'm no good without you by my side
No I'm no good just out here wastin my time
No I'm no good need you here back in my life
Like a bird that can't fly like a sun with no sky
Without you I'm no good
Said I'm not good (hey)

I can try convince myself I don't need you in my life
In my videos you see me smile but it's killing me inside
Like a mother with no baby (baby) I'm a man without his lady
Baby won't you come and save me cause I'm running outta time

Baby I, e, I
Never saw this coming
Shoulda took the time
To figure out what you needed
I've realised you all I'm living for
And how much baby I need you

I'm no good without you by my side
No I'm no good just out here wastin my time
No I'm no good need you here back in my life
Like a bird that can't fly like a sun with no sky
Without you I'm no good

I'll do whatever it takes
Ready to be everything that you need
Without you might aswell throw me away
Cause it's plain to see that without girl I'm no good

Every girl in the ghetto
Gotta feel me, gotta feel this
All my fellas in the ghetto
I know you feel me, gotta feel this

Cause I'm no good without you by my side
No I'm no good just out here wastin my time
No I'm no good need you here back in my life
Like a bird that can't fly like a sun with no sky
Without you I'm no good

Without you by my side
No I'm no good just out here wastin my time (all my time)
No I'm no good need you back in my life
Like a bird that can't fly like a sun with no sky
Without you I'm no good

Woah woah I, I
No I'm no good
Woah woah I, I
No I'm no good
Woah woah I, I
No I'm no good
