

Gate And Garden

Stevie Nicks

There is a gate
It can be guarded
Well it is not heaven
And it has a garden
So to the red rose
Grows the passion

And the guardian
Well it's now you know
It's just a few days away
It's now you know
And it's then
It's just a game that we play
Someone steals it

Someone steals it away
Scares you to death
You don't give in to yourself
You give in to your friends
Don't send an answer
How many times have you said

Do I love you
Well I always did everynight
Nobody knows nothing 'bout it

Well it's now you know
It's everywhere
You say you seek the truth
I say all is fair
Don't send an answer
How many times
Have you said

Do I love you every night
Well I always did
Nobody knows nothin' 'bout it
Whoa do I love you
Well I always did every night
Nobody knows nothin' 'bout it
They know nothing 'bout it
They know nothing' 'bout it

Do I love you Ooo

Whoa
Do I love you oh
Do I love you ah
Do I love you oh
