Blues at Sunrise

Stevie Ray Vaughan

The sun rises in the east lover, it sets deeply in the west The sun rises in the east lover, it sets deeply in the west I've been looking for my lover, and I haven't found her yet

I'm gonna call up China and see if my baby's over there I'm gonna call up China and see if my baby's over there You know I looked the whole world over, I can't find my lover n owhere

She won't write me no letters, won't even call me on the teleph one She won't write me no letters, won't even call me on the teleph one You know I haven't had no real good lovin' since that gal of mi ne been gone

Someday baby, you're gonna want me like I want you Someday baby, you're gonna want me like I want you But when I call you on the phone darlin', I'll say I have nothi ng for you to do
