Rocket Love

Stevie Wonder

Do Do Do, Do Do Do, Do Do, Do Do Do Do Do, Do Do Do, Do Do Do-oo

I longed for you since I was born A woman sensitive and warm And that you were

With pride and strength no one would test But yet have feminine finesse And so much more

You took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world Took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world

A female Shakespeare of your time With looks to blow Picasso's mind You were the best

Your body moved with grace and song Like symphonies by Bach or Brahms Nevertheless, oh oh

You took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world Ooh you took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world

Da Da Da, Da Da Da, Da Da Da, Da Da Da Da Da, Da Da Da-aa

The passion burning in your heart Would make hell's fire seem like a spark Where did it go

Just why that you would overnight Turn love to stone as cold as ice I'll never know

But you took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world Baby you took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world

Cold, too cold, you took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world Oh, Oh, Oh, took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to into this cold, cold world I would not do that to a dog Took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world

You took me riding in your rocket, gave me a star But at a half a mile from heaven you dropped me back down to this cold, cold world

Ooh baby
