Sweetest Somebody I Know

Stevie Wonder

There is something on my mind that's in my heart written on my face And it would behave me and my soul if I did state my case And so as truth is real and real is truth this truly must be to ld That you've got to be the sweetest somebody I Know It's your love for life, your love for God, your love for love and more And you express your love in ways like I've never known before If there's a record kept on who's the sweetest let the record s how That you've got to be the sweetest somebody I Know You are the sweetest somebody I know And that is why I can't help but love you so In a time when people are on with making sure that they're okay You pour out your love every second, every minute, every hour o f the day I'm not trying to blow your horn I'm only saying what is so That you've got to be the sweetest somebody I Know You are the sweetest somebody I know And that is why I can't help but love you so When I feel like from giving up from seeing all life's pain and strife You rejuvenate me saying everything's gonna be alright If there's a place called "heaven" bet my life someday you're g onna go Cause you've got to be the sweetest somebody I Know You are the sweetest somebody I know And that is why I can't help but love you so [repeat]
