

Break of Day

Stick Figure

It is the breaking of a new day I'm not thinking about tomorrow just the new day the time its come, well everything been fun well everything been easy and now everything is gone we can do it your way, lets roll one up for your sake take one down, pass it all around nothing is impossible, now look at what we found stop following me, I break with the breeze the way the cold wind it blows and then i got caught up in the lifestyle living i'm trying to make a livin now whats it gonna be, oh who knows take it away

I don't believe it, I don't believe it
I don't believe it, I don't believe it
