

On 2nite

Stick Figure

lets go away for awhile lets take a break from it all we know not where we going some place, somewhere, something new i feel it's all we can do soon we be leaving i know we've been here before we're not welcome no more it seems so familiar i feel the weight of the world pick me up and push me forward we all fall over

oh can you feel it, its on tonight, on tonight

In the darkest corner of the world, there's a man who live with his girl far from nowhere
some place, somewhere, something new
its all we needed I know we'll make it ok i hope this feeling goes away its almost over there is a world we have never seen there's a hope, there's a dream, whoa whoa

ew can you feel it, its on tonight, too ew can you feel it, its on tonight, on tonight
