

Rocky Road

Stick Figure

no destination, no where to go no obligation, no one to call the rocky road is getting long the rocky road won't take me home situations they come and go no hesitation you walk out that door so what do i do? I got nothing to lose I keep it cool around you, you, you

I lie awake I got my eyes wide open I listen to the rhythm and the sound of the ocean I try to sleep but then i am awoken the sound of the train always gives me hope to see you to see you, to see you, to see you relation, it will ease your mind expectations, don't waste your time so come on let's go to the great unknown don't stay home, stay true, true, true

I was there I was waiting by the train stop waiting for the train, but never did the train stop I waited awhile and then I felt a rain drop something made me smile it was not you, not you not you, not you
