

The World Is Waiting

Stick Figure

nothing comes before your mind got to take a break sometimes tomorrow is a new day and I want to go to rest tonight the world is sleeping on me hard to fall to sleep sometimes full moon is shining so bright been around the world seen it all once before nothing comes before your life you know, know why I feel this way

it's hard, hard sometimes it's hard, hard to change your mind

It'll all be O.K.
It'll all be O.K.
like a light, it flash before your eyes time has stopped and your still alive don't let them tell you, we can make it up next time there might not be a next time, yeah you've watched the years pass by you've seen this life unwind I hear the same words and it's such routine the world is waiting on me you know, know why you feel this way

it's hard, hard sometimes
