

broken salvation complete devastation
the blood on your hands (to) satisfy your fixation
now you live with weight of regret crushing your chest.
you will never forget the life that you take.
forever you pay for your mistake.
oh the hearts that you break.
you took someones mother.
you took someones father.
you took someones son.
you took someones daughter.
now dwell as you burn in your own personal hell
broken salvation complete devastation
the blood on your hands to satisfy your fixation
