

Driving Force

Stick to Your Guns

So here we go again.
Ignorance brought back by popular demand.
It seems that I'll never understand.
How much more must we lose before we turn this and around and choose, do we dress the part or do we have the heart? WE ARE THE DRIVING FORCE.
You'll knock us down we'll get back up. WE ARE THE DRIVING FORCE.
We'll tear this down, we'll push our luck. WE ARE THE DRIVING FORCE.
From here on out this is for us. WE ARE THE DRIVING FORCE.
We'll cross every line you draw in the sand we'll always have the upperhand.
This time around we're fighting for something.
This time around it's all or nothing. No more excuses.
We're gonna follow this through to the very end.
No more excuses. We won't let them take this again. TAKE US AGAIN!
