Just Fade Away

Stiff Little Fingers

She asks for more and I give less Why can't she see it's obvious I mean no but she takes yes I make it clear but she don't guess.

She comes around it gets me down
But she don't catch a hint I drop
She turns up it turns me off
And she don't know when to stop.

What am I supposed to do? How to gently break the news? How to get the message through? Perhaps I should just fade away.

She asked me out and I gave in Then she gave out and I felt mean I really want no more of us So I stay home, she comes across.

She comes round I turn her down
But she bounces back again
She comes on I turn her off
But she don't get what's really plain.

What am I supposed to do?

Got to get the message through

Got to make her see the truth

I wish she would just fade away.

Do you want to know do I love you? The answer's no, is that straight enough for you?

She asked for it I told her flat That I don't want no more of that I've really had you up to here And I don't even like you near.

If you come round I won't be in I can't stand to see your face If we meet up then count me out Why don't you just fade away?

Fade away

When love's not love When love's not love When love's not love Fade away.
