

They All Had Their Hands Up

Stillwell

If the source was the bible, then XXL was the Quran
And Melle Mel's first verse was like the very first psalm Kool Herc is god and Bambataa is Abraham
Rakim is Mohamed and Nas is Christ with sacred hands
The Old Testament is a major label
That had Biggie and Pac playing Caine and Abel
Arc angels held swords, ice cube held a riffle
And the rock steady crew is now the 12 disciples
Jay Z is King David, he took on a Goliath of an industry
And through faith the king made it
The 3 kings was Run-Dmc and jam master jay
Dr. Dre was King Solomon, you at mass to pray
Eminem is Job, lil' Kim is Mary Magdalen
Many at the pearly gates hashing through a bag of sins
Phase 2 is a saint with his image on a canvass
And by the lake get cleansed by lil' Jon the Baptist

And they all had their hands up, hoping for a miracle
And they all had their hands up, praying for an answer
And they all had their hands up, every eye cry
And they all had their hands up, the sight of the most high

And as I continue to read the scripture, Rick Rubin is Da Vinci giving a vivid picture
It'll last forever on canvass, Tony Iommi is Moses with thern10 metal commandments
John Bonham climbed the stairway to heaven, where Jimi Hendrix spends his day shredding
Beware when God drops his fist, cause Metallica are the 4 horsemen of the apocalypse
Gene Simmons will make you doubt the reverend, then Kerry King will send you to south of heaven
Bruce Dickinson marks the beast to twist the heartless
Who worship Ozzy Osbourne the princ of darkness Cobain is Christ bruised and scarred, Marilyn Manson is an anti Christ superstar
Angus Young took the highway to the devils floor
And got Axl and Slash knocking on heaven's door

And they all had their hands up, hoping for a miracle
And they all had their hands up, praying for an answer
And they all had their hands up, every eye cry
And they all had their hands up, the sight of the most high

Come on get your hands up! Get your hands up!

And they all had their hands up, hoping for a miracle
And they all had their hands up, praying for an answer

And they all had their hands up, every eye cry
And they all had their hands up, the sight of the most high
