Russians

In Europe and America There's a growing feeling of hysteria Conditioned to respond to all the threats In the rhetorical speeches of the Soviets Mister Krushev said "We will bury you" I don't subscribe to this point of view It'd be such an ignorant thing to do If the Russians love their children too

How can I save my little boy From Oppenheimers deadly toy There is no monopoly on common sense On either side of the political fence We share the same biology Regardless of ideology Believe me when I say to you I hope the Russians love their children too

There is no historical precedent To put the words in the mouth of the president There's no such thing as a winnable war It's a lie we don't believe anymore Mister Reagan says "We will protect you" I don't subscribe to that point of view Believe me when I say to you I hope the Russians love their children too

We share the same biology Regardless of ideology But what might save us, me and you Is if the Russians love their children too
