

Burn The Witch

Stone Gods

Foul Play, Mark of the Devil
Build an empire on the lies that you pedal
You had your staff to run your coven
The ship has sunk, the rats have gone
there's no one left to cast your spell on

Shave her head, build the fire and bring the chains
Come on, children, bring a match and start the flame
There's gonna be a fire tonight
We're gonna see a woman burn
Sit down, enjoy the screams

We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch

Burn, burn, burn

Dirty woman doing downright dirty deeds
The flames are going to lick around your wizard's sleeve
Ill-gotten gains can't get you out of trouble
The die is cast, the sentence passed

Shave her head, build the fire and bring the chains
Come on, children, bring a match and start the flame
There's gonna be a fire tonight
We're gonna see a fucker burn
Sit down, enjoy the screams

We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch
We're gonna burn the witch

Burn, burn, burn
