Breaking into Heaven

The Stone Roses

I've been casing your joint for the best years of my life Like the look of your stuff, outta sight When I'm hungry and when I'm cold When I'm having it rough Or just getting old

Listen up sweet child of mine Have I got news for you Nobody leaves this place alive They'll die and join the queue

Better man the barricades I'm coming in tonight Had a line of my dust, outta sight When I wander and when I roam I'll find a soul I can trust I'm coming home

Listen up sweet child of mine Have I got news for you Nobody leaves this place alive They'll die and join the queue, sing it

I'm, I'm gonna break right into Heaven
I can't wait anymore

Heavens gates won't hold me I'll saw those suckers down Laughing loud at your locks when they hit the ground Every icon in every town Hear this your numbers up I'm coming round

Listen up sweet child of mine Have I got news for you Nobody leaves this place alive They'll die and join the queue, sing it

I'm, I'm gonna break right into Heaven
I can't wait anymore

How many times will I have to tell you You don't have to wait to die You can have it all anytime you want it Yeah, the kingdom's all inside
