

Daybreak

The Stone Roses

This is the daybreak
And this is the love we make
For love is the law here
You got to know how I love it, yea
It's more than a mover

You know it takes all fast, all song
Stone cold wild
Bring the loving son, brother, man
True nature child
I think I'll sing it

From Atlanta, Georgia
To Moss Side, Manchester
Everyone ready
So, so willin' and able
Yea, yea, yea
For the love you make
Gone home sis
Huh, yea, woo

Yea, yea, yea

She built it to make ya
We all love maker's ain't we?
Sister Rosa Lee Parks
Love forever her name in your heart
Forever in my heart
Hmm, yea, hoo, yea

As I sing on this song
Someone just got rolled on
Hey, oh, hey, yea, woo, yea
Hmm, Hmm

New York City
To Addis Ababa ba ba
Keep on keepin' strong
Keep on keepin' on

So why no stat for black on a radio station in this, the city?
Been goin' on so long, level on the line
I'm a leaf on the vine of time
Black bones are the original bones
So, this the whole wide world should know, y'all
I came to sing this song in your city

Ooh, for the dreamer
One more for the dreamer
Yea, yea, yea
