Tradjic Roundabout

The Stone Roses

Witches, warlocks, and vulturemen too Martin Luther had nothing on you He had a dream, you'll have a baby, baby Will you cope, I don't know, maybe

The CIA, in Mothercare They'll screw you up cos you're not all there I see submission in a million eyes Twittering women are still telling lies

And you're not so gifted at all, at all

Bitches basements all over the land You're striking pulses with half dose in hand You think you're righteous 'cause you're smoking some shit And I'm the one that pays for it

You're not so gifted at all, at all And we're not so gifted at all, at all

Woo!

And you're not so gifted at all, at all And we're not so gifted at all, at all

Woo!
