Stone Sour

Hear me!! Remember all the times you bent our truth and crossed our lines ? All things considered, it was just our normal way of life But somewhere in the middle, we got caught and dragged away So my tribunal brings us here so I can fall today All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I can't betray! I can't betray - myself! I stand before you as a victim, as the system rots I couldn't focus, so I staggered when I heard the shots There are no labels and no rehabilitation here You are surrounded by the very fucking thoughts you fear All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us Hear me!!! All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I can't betray! I can't betray - myself! I watch the hope I had disintegrate before my eyes I take a minute and reflect on all your fucking lies Behind the door, you have two choices, but you don't get to cho ose You can survive or you can die - either way you lose All - you want is soulless All - you got to break us All - I have to do is Stop - your fucking nonsense I can't betray! I can't betray - myself!
