

Inside the Cynic

Stone Sour

I hear my poisons in the multitude
Why was I damned a human deemed too rude
Somewhere between the madness and my mind
I live with legions called the human kind

I wander aimlessly amongst the herd
Infesting shadows, I am undeterred
I give opinion cause you give no peace
They say we manifest the new disease

R: My head explodes
My soul berates
Erratic bonds,
They scar my face
I won't, exist
I won't, persist

I cast a weary gaze into the crowd
Ten thousand reasons dropped into my mouth
My theoretix can't begin to live
So I have nothing more than life to give

R:

See the lies you've given me
This is not what I should be
You say your truth isn't mine
Everything, everything, everything you say's a lie

R:
