

I remember now, but I still have my doubts
I think it's gonna be today
Everybody came, but it's just not the same
Why did it have to be today?
Now my chest is tight - no, I am not all right
It doesn't have to be this way
Why does it have to be this way?

I dont know what's wrong,
It's like I'm to far gone
It doesn't matter, anyway
Fear is in my heart - just when I stop it starts
And I can never live this way

Freedom in a cage - no sun and too much rage
I don't know how much i can take
Push it down inside, but it knows just where to hide
I know that "normal" is hard to fake
Bleeding into life - it's like a thousand knives
Are slowly turning me into this
Why does it have to be like this?

I dont know what's wrong,
It's like I'm to far gone
It doesn't matter, anyway
Fear is in my heart - just when I stop it starts
And I can never live this way (2x)

I lost again, today...

I dont know what's wrong,
It's like I'm to far gone
It doesn't matter, anyway
Fear is in my heart - just when I stop it starts
And I can never live this way
Living with a curse, sometimes it's even worse
It slowly kills me everyday
Something I despise is gonna take my life
I guess I'll try again today
