

Same on the Inside

Stone Temple Pilots

Sending out a message to the world
But I just can't seem to find the words
No one wants to die alone
Broken and insane
Question every last decision
Another empty page

Do you know the answers?
Tell me, I find my happy ending
When do we start pretending that
We're all the same on the inside

Wanting what I know won't satisfy
Just to live this, need to live a lie
Never meant to run away
Jumping out the train
My cage was built on good intentions
Running every page

Do you know the answers?
Tell me, I find my happy ending
When do we start pretending that
We're all the same on the inside

All the same on the inside
All the same on the inside

Do you want the answers?
Tell me, I find my happy ending
When do we start pretending that
We're all the same on the inside

All the same on the inside
We're all the same on the inside
We're all the same on the inside

Yeah, we're all the same on the inside
