

Big Busy World

Stonewall Jackson

Reminiscing for a sweet love you can lose on track of time You love someone and now they're gone you can slowly lose your mind
So be thankful if you're somewhere with that very special girl
Without love we're all alone in this big busy world
There is no future there's no past when the present finds you b lue
You're not living just existing when there's no one in love wit h you Let's go searching for that certain one that sends your heart a whirl
Without love we're all alone in this big busy world

What's the difference when you're lonely if it's night or if it
's day
When nobody cares about you nothing turns out anyway I'd much rather have a loved one than all the treasures in the world
Without love we're all alone in this big busy world
Without love we're all alone in this big busy world
