Stateside

Stonewall Jackson

The Japany's moon is bright tonight and Tokio is full of life Busy people everywhere but busy people just don't care I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside In and out the honky tonks but nothing's there I really want Sat awhile and look around get up and leave and walk the town I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside

Giashy girls don't understand the lonely life of a sailor man When his heart is far away to a girl in the USA I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside They laugh and say a man won't cry but I can't keep my blue eye s dry

Been away about two years I know I've cried a million tears I wanna go stateside oh Lord I wanna go stateside
