Metal Avenger

Stormwarrior

Accursed and banished to death A flaming blade in his hand A prowling wolf on the run Oh the metalized one

A thruster and servant of swords The brave battle-deale of yore He calls for the wild and the free Oh the ravens to feed

And as a thunderstorm strikes the dark I brandish the sacred sword Feel the blade of revenge, bringer of war

I'm the metal avenger, enforcer of steele The metal avenger, attacker of shields

Enhancer of warrior-rage The outlaw is sealing their fate A voice of bloode now will rise The increaser of fight

And as a thunderstorm strikes the dark I brandish the sacred sword Feel the blade of revenge, bringer of war
