

Sons Of Steele

Stormwarrior

Back in the fields, the banner on our shields
We march into the war
We stand our rights to claim
Unbreakable, we'll never fall
Fight for survival
Fight for the legacy of the fallen ones
Carry on the faith of the elders
Never yield and never crawl

We believe in the might
The power of Metal tonight
Brothers, stand up and fight
Fight for the fire of our lives

We're Sons of Steel

Keep the fire burning
Swear the oath, hail the Metal gods
Never forget what you fought for in the past
Bonded by faith and religion
Studs and Leather and a strong belief
Revive the storm of the fathers
Defend the spirit out in the fields

We're Sons of Steel
